Overview. The ILPA is dedicated to promoting transparency and alignment of interests between private equity investors (LPs) and the managers with whom they invest (GPs). The ILPA has consistently promoted greater transparency and uniformity in disclosures to LPs, as reflected in the ILPA Principles (2011), the ILPA's Capital Call and Distribution Notice Template (2012) and the ILPA Quarterly Reporting Standards (2012).

Reporting Template - ILPA

Private equity (PE) funds and venture capitalists have long recognized opportunities for growth and generation of capital through non-U.S. (foreign) investors. With more U.S. funds engaging in cross-border transactions, the frequency of payments to foreign investors has also increased along with regulatory enforcement efforts in this area including increased penalties, improved systems for tracking reportable income, more examinations and a plethora of regulations.
